

I urge you to leave the current media ownership rules in place. I do not want single corporations to control the television news that I watch or the newspapers that I read. Considering the current conservative political powers controlling our country, I feel that deregulating the media ownership rules would be paramount to being un-American!